Grand Master Mason

CEREMONY OF REDEDICATION

The Grand Master Mason will announce the purpose of the meeting.

OPENING PRAISE

The Brethren will sing Psalm 23 – Tune: Crimond

- | | |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. The Lord's my shepherd, I'll not want
He makes me down to lie
In pastures green: he leadeth me
the quiet waters by. | 2. Goodness and mercy all my life
shall surely follow me:
And in God's house for evermore
My dwelling place shall be. |
| 3. Yea, though I walk in death's dark vale
Yet will I fear none ill:
For thour art with me: and thy rod
And staff me comfort still. | 4. Goodness and mercy all my life
Shall surely follow me;
And in God's house for evermore
My dwelling-place shall be. |

SCRIPTURE READING - GRAND CHAPLAIN

ACT OF REDEDICATION

THE BRETHREN WILL SING:

Psalm 122 – Tune: Amazing Grace

- | | |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. Pray that Jerusalem may have
Peace and felicity:
Let them that love thee and thy peace
Have still prosperity | 2. Therefore I wish that peace may stil
Within thy walls remain
And ever may thy palaces
Prosperity retain. |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

OBLIGATION

3. Now, for my friends' and brethren's sake
Peace be in thee, I'll say.
And for the house of God our Lord,
I'll seek they good alway.

THE THREEFOLD BLESSING

ORATION BY GRAND CHAPLAIN

Bretheren to remain seated during this part of the ceremony

Paraphrase 18 – Tune: Glasgow

- | | |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. Behold! the mountain of the Lord
In latter days shall rise
On mountain tops above the hills,
And draw the wond'ring eyes. | 2. To this joyfu nations round,
All tribes and tongues shall flow;
Up to the hill of God, they'll say,
And to his house we'll go. |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

Blessing from the South

Brethren: So mote it be.

- | | |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 3. The beam that shines from Zion hill
Shall lighten ev'ry land;
The King who reigns in Salem's tow'rs
Shall all the world command. | 4. To this joyful nations round,
All tribes and tongues shall flow;
His sceptre shall prectect the just,
And quell the sinner's pride. |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

Blessing from the West

Brethren: So mote it be.

- | | |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 5. No strife shall rage, nor hostile feuds
Disturb those peaceful years;
To ploughsharers men shall beat their swords
To pruning-hooks their spears. | 6. No longer hosts encount'ring hosts
Shall crowds of slain deplore:
They hang the trumpet in the hall,
And study war no more. |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

Blessing from the East

Brethren: So mote it be.

Dedication of Regalia

Address by the Grand Master Mason

History of the Lodge

Address by Brother Steven Irvine

The Grand Master Mason will announce the singing of Paraphrase 2

Paraphrase 2 – Tune: Salzburg

|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. O GOD of Bethel! by whose hand
Thy people still are fed;
Who through this weary pilgrimage
hast all our fathers led: | 2. Our vows, our pray'rs we now present
Before thy throne of grace:
God of our fathers! be the God
Of their succeeding race. |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Brethren: So mote it be.

The Brethren will sing:

3. Such blessings from they gracious hand
Our humble pray'rs implore;
And thou shalt be our chosen God,
And portion evermore.
